

Blue Water Bridge

- Traffic still flowing
- Alternate route mapped out to Bridge
- Tractor convoy on 402 still

Sarnia

- small gathering at City Hall
- never attended bridge
- dissipated without incident

Ambassador

- Took over area 1,2 and part of 3
- Protestors increased
- Issues tickets, towed vehicles on side streets
- Looking to increase pressure of Enforcement tomorrow
- 250 protestors. Progressing well
- Mindset that police cannot be here forever, may continue to be an issue in the future

Niagara

- 200 people headed to the Peace Bridge
- Mostly passenger vehicles
- Peace Bridge proactively closed
- OPP Diverted off QEW
- Protestors set up
- Never blockaded road
- Tow Trucks not wanting to assist
- 5 vehicles, 30 people trying to block route to Peace bridge
- Air Support for convoy
- Heavy Presence remains, no intel for tomorrow
- OPP has educated enough, they will be charging if small amount of vehicles

Hamilton

- Protest at City Hall
- 200 people
- POU group in Toronto for the day

Peel

- No issues at LBPIA
- Additional staffing and proactively gathering intelligence

Toronto

- Took more space and intelligence greatly assisted
- Rerouted traffic and messed up traffic and used city's volume to frustrate protestors
- Many protestors that were to come to Toronto went elsewhere
- Facilitated peaceful protest at Queen's Park
- Thinned the crowd into small group

Cornwall

- Protest at POE
- 20 farm tractors came to bridge
- 200 protestors
- Protest cleared at 4pm
- Road was not blocked
- One lane in each direction
- Access to Akwesasne was not compromised
- Indications are that they will not set up tomorrow

Gananoque

- Info on possible convoy to Gananoque
- Precautions taken
- Nobody showed up

Ottawa

- Good lessons learned
- Morning Brief – 3000-5000 trucks
- Able to divert and not accessed to downtown
- Only 500 trucks came in
- Only 500 on the Hill, very aggressive stance
- Working on more hardened target on the cenotaph
- Large Diesel tanker on Coventry road intercepted
- Huge support from OPP
- Anticipating less trucks tomorrow
- Recalibration in incident command team
- Fully integrated OPP in incident command team
- Aware of efforts to try new things
- Potential relief from non-police entities
- Maintained the size of the red-zone

Northwest – Convoy in Thunder Bay

- Went to Pigeon River. Left without incident
- Sudbury – peaceful, stayed to the curb slow-roll protest
- Successful

London

- Two convoys 10 am 20 vehicles
- Second one was 200 vehicles 5 hrs long
- Both no major incidents

Public Order Working Group

- London POU in Windsor
- Waterloo in Toronto
- Hamilton in Toronto
- OPP supported in Toronto
- Peel Regional Returned to Peel from Ottawa
- York heading to Ottawa

Intel

- Ottawa will see a sustained pressure
- Crowd is becoming irritated and have leadership
- Increased antagonism towards police
- Comments are that they are there to stay
- Increased sales of bear spray
- Have not dealt with sustained dedication for these things
- Belief that there is a low tolerance in Toronto
- Failed to conceive of this movement
- Grassroots movement with a lot of frustration, opposed to things
- Pop up events will be seen
- Aggravation and frustration will continue
- Increased antagonism will come forward.
- Surprised by significant level of tolerance to Ottawa
- Discussion of conspiracy to commit mischief
- Surprised by logistical support, financial support, sheer numbers
- Protestors have plans to move trucks away from Ottawa neighborhoods
- A lot of them do not want to face the consequences
- Changes in mandates and across the country are fulfilling prophesy
- Need to consider civil liberties issues in our intel gathering

RCMP

- Protestors between NS and NB
 - Demonstration in Montreal
 - Manitoba Emerson was blocked
 - Alberta – Coutts is completely blocked
- BC – focus on Pacific Highway
